Hurst Morris People

Our 2024 Charity

This year, we're collecting for Sue Ryder:
a source of strength and support for anyone living with a life-limiting illness or grief: sueryder.donate

Because no one should face death or grief alone

Hurst Morris performances 2024

Enjoy watching our English Cotswold-style stick and handkerchief morris dancing to live, vibrant, fiddle and squeezebox tunes.

We perform at pubs, village fetes, folk festivals, schools, residential and stately homes, and teach our dances to groups wishing to try them.

If you would like us to perform for you, please get in touch.

Dates and times can change, so keep updated with our social media.
